TPC Terms & Conditions

Limited Warranty: TPC warrants to Buyer that products manufactured by TPC that are sold to Buyer will be free from defects in material and workmanship under normal use for a period of 6 months.

Defective product must be documented in writing and submitted to TPC within 10 days following the discovery of such defect. Any Product returned due to a defect will be subject to the RMA terms & conditions.

- Minimum Orders: Orders less than $50.00 will incur an additional $5.00 handling charge.
- Drop Ship Orders: All drop ship orders will incur an additional $5.00 fee.

Returns:

A product manufactured or sold by TPC may not be returned unless it is damaged, defective, received in error, or as otherwise authorized in the sole discretion of TPC.

All returns are subject to the following:

The customer must obtain a returned material authorization ("RMA") number from a TPC customer service representative before returning a product, regardless of the reason for the return. The customer must describe the reason for return in reasonable detail at the time of obtaining the RMA number from TPC. TPC will not assume any liability for a product returned without a RMA number, and may refuse to accept delivery of such product and/or return such product to the customer at the customer's expense.

The customer bears all risk of loss or damage in such instance.

THE RMA NUMBER AND ORIGINAL INVOICE DATE MUST BE LISTED ON ALL PAPERWORK.

Issuance of a RMA number by TPC does not guarantee that a return will be accepted. In the case of an alleged damaged or defective product, TPC will only accept returns if (a) the alleged damage or defect is established to the satisfaction of TPC, (b) such product is still covered by the warranty, and (c) the customer has notified TPC in writing within (i) 48 hours of delivery in the case of any damage that is discoverable on a visual inspection or (ii) 10 days following discovery of the defect. Any damage that is discoverable on a visual inspection must also be reported to the carrier at time of delivery. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the customer discovers upon delivery that the product is damaged, the customer must refuse the damaged product. If the customer accepts the product with visible damage, it must be noted on the carrier's delivery record so that a claim can be filed with the carrier.

A product shipped in error by TPC must be reported to TPC within 48 hours of delivery and returned within 10 days of delivery by the customer to receive a credit. A credit will not be issued until the returned product is received. If the customer elects to keep the product or fails to report the error to TPC within 48 hours of delivery, the customer will be invoiced for the product.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the customer is responsible for all costs related to returning the product to TPC, including freight, shipping and insurance expenses. TPC does not take possession of a product until it is received in TPC system.

TPC will not be responsible for any damage or loss during shipment. Any freight, shipping or insurance charges associated with a return of a product shipped in error by TPC will either be credited or refunded to the customer, as determined by TPC. If TPC replaces or repairs a damaged or defective product or replaces a product shipped in error by TPC, TPC will pay all freight, shipping and insurance charges to ship such product to the customer, provided that the customer has complied with this RMA Policy.

A product accepted for return by TPC in its sole discretion (for reason other than damage, defect or TPC's error) will be subject to a restocking fee. A minimum 20% restocking fee will be charged to the customer's account. In these cases, the product must be returned in the original, unopened packaging and in saleable condition, and is subject to quality control inspection prior to acceptance.
